CreativeFuture Issues Official Statement on the Retirement of Chairman Bob Goodlatte

LOS ANGELES, CA November 13, 2017 – In response to House Judiciary Committee Chairman Bob Goodlatte’s announcement that he will retire at the end of his current term, CreativeFuture CEO Ruth Vitale released the following statement:

“CreativeFuture, and truly all creatives, sincerely thank Chairman Goodlatte for his unwavering support of creativity, his leadership, and his tireless efforts to protect the rights of those that depend on copyright to make a living. Our creative communities are thankful for his contributions, including his work on the Register of Copyrights Selection and Accountability Act. While his guidance will be missed, we wish him the best as he begins this new stage of his life.”
